JAPANESE ATMOSPHERE AT LEAGUE MEETING

Members of the League for Service had a party at the home of Miss Anna Mulenberg Friday evening. The guests of honor were Miss Jeanne Noordhoff and Mrs. H. Kuyper, missionaries from Japan. A Japanese atmosphere prevailed. Japanese lanterns were used for decorations; the committee in charge of amusements, with the aid of Miss Noordhoff, introduced several Japanese games and stunts. Outstanding was Japanese volley ball which proved most interesting and fascinating, as also the bean picking contest—picking up beans with chopsticks—well in respect to some of the games—all we might truthfully say—"It takes a Dutchman 3 days to catch on"—and then some. To eat ice cream and cake with chop sticks required skill and proved quite amusing. Miss Noordhoff presented each one present a pair of chopsticks.

DEDICATED SELECTION TO HER GRANDFATHER

Relatives and friends enjoyed listening to a fifteen-minute piano recital played by Miss Laura Vander Schaaf, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Vander Schaaf of Springfield, S. D., and broadcasted by Station WNAJ at Xankton Sunday afternoon. Miss Vander Schaaf is a music student at Southern State Normal. Among the selections played was the Adagio movement of Beethoven's famous Moonlight Sonata. She honored her grandfather, Mr. Samuel Mulenberg, by dedicating this selection to him. The story associated with this sonata tells that Beethoven was sitting at his piano in front of the window on a beautiful moonlight evening and in spite of his stone deafness played and wrote this great work. Miss Vander Schaaf was a member of the graduating class of 1935 of N. W. Classical Academy and with her sister spent the school year here with her grandfather, S. Mulenberg. Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Strijland and son, Robert, called on Rev. and Mrs. H. Harnelink at Hollandale, Minn., last Friday. Rev. Harnelink
