

NOTES OF THE SICK; INJURED

Hospital Notes About Orange City Patients

Mrs. Lena Plooster was dismissed from the hospital Sunday and is being cared for in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Homer Ferry, at Alton.

Orean Yellama was dismissed from the hospital Friday, Mrs. John Krass and baby on Wednesday, and Mrs. Wilson Bayer on Saturday. Because of road conditions the latter is staying with relatives in town at present.

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vander Zwang March 3.

Frank, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Heemstra, is seriously ill with pneumonia and complications.

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vander Brakke Friday.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Miller underwent a minor operation Saturday morning.

Mrs. Terpstra submitted to a minor operation on her head.

Mrs. Johnny Reinders' condition is much improved.

Mrs. B. De Cook fell on the icy walk Monday evening and injured her wrist badly. An x-ray showed no broken bones, but badly sprained.

Albert Ross fell and injured his foot and back.

Wm. Van Gorp has been sick for a few days and unable to take care of his janitor duties at the church. Jas. Schuller substituted for him.

ORANGE CITY CHURCH EVENTS

The Ladies Aid and Missionary societies of Trinity church met at the home of Mrs. P. Van Es. Mrs. Van Es had charge of devotions. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. J. Groen and Mrs. N. C. Bogard.

Rev. H. Kuyper conducted the prayer service in Trinity church Wednesday evening.

The Men's Brotherhood met Thursday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Bronner. Devotions and study were based on the 5th chapter of Jeremiah.

Rev. Bert Brower has received a call from Trinity Reformed church of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The League for Service met at the home of Mrs. J. G. Bronner with Miss Bernice Mollena assistant hostess. Mrs. Bronner was in charge of the program. Candidate Wm. Reinsma has accepted a call to the church at Bejon, Minnesota.

Erwin Mullenburg led C. E. meeting in the First church Sunday.

Junior Ladies society of First church met Thursday afternoon. The topic was "Our Work at Brewton, Alabama." Mrs. Peter Raak was leader. Hostesses were Mrs. Wm. and Mrs.

Gt. Mulder, and Mrs. Henry Kleinbeselink. The annual gift sale was held after the meeting.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HEAR SENATOR ROELOFS

On Friday afternoon, March 6, Senator Gerrit L. Roelofs of Sioux Center will address the members of the Woman's club. His topic will be "State Legislation." The meeting will begin at 2:30 and will be held in the dining room of the Hawkeye hotel. All members are urged to be present and to bring a friend. An invitation is extended to all men and women who are interested to attend. Come and enjoy the fine program that has been arranged.

The Child Welfare group of the Woman's club met Monday at the home of Mrs. R. T. Hyink. Mrs. Marion Brink was in charge of the program.

Miss Algene Wilson, former Sioux county home demonstration agent, has been appointed as temporary assistant state home demonstration agent leader of the extension service of Iowa State college. Ames. Miss Wilson has been in this work since 1926 and has served in Sioux and O'Brien counties until her transfer to Cedar Rapids last year.

MOVING DAY—BUT WHERE TO IS PROBLEM

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Tye have rented the house now occupied by Rev. and Mrs. H. Kuyper who will move into the house vacated by Mrs. Joe Heemstra's family who go to the Van Rooyen place. Fred Browers have moved into Mrs. Koolman's house, the Gardner family into the house vacated by the Browers. Sup. John Brower will move into the Van Vliet house and there are many others involved in the annual moving time but the problem is to find a house to move into.

HOPE ALUMNI COMPLIMENT MISS BEKMAN

Holland City News: The chapter of Hope College Alumni of New York met in the beautiful Riverside church in New York City on Feb. 11 with 104 alumni present. Mr. Alfred Scholten presided and Miss Priscilla Bekman was in charge of arrangements. After the program and election of officers the chapter honored the former secretary, Miss Bekman, with a money gift in recognition of her excellent services and because of her anticipated journey to Japan as a missionary of the Reformed church.

APPOINTED TO FERRIS SEMINARY

Friends of Miss Priscilla Bekman have been informed of the fact that the Board of Foreign Missions has given her an appointment as a teacher of home economics in Ferris Seminary, Japan. She will leave in the fall and, in all probability, will visit relatives and friends here before that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony De Woerd, who were planning to move to the farm on March 1, were obliged to change their plans on account of his health. He became ill last week, suffering from a severe case of diabetes. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heedeman, who had rented the house, are trying to find another place.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Balkema spent Sunday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Balkema, near New Kirk.

Rev. Bronkema will have charge of the services at Hospers Sunday and Rev. Schuurman and Candidate Heedert will be in charge of services in Rev. Bronkema's church here.

A large group of women attended the prayer meeting for the World's Day of Prayer at the First Reformed church last Friday. The committee for arrangements for 1937 was appointed and includes the following: Mrs. Vandewerp, Mrs. Wm. Caisbeck, Mrs. Paul Mouw, the Misses Cynthia Schalkkamp and Maris Mullenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kraal entertained 25 friends at a "hard times" party at the Jensen home Friday evening. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed. Five hundred was the evening's diversion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pas of Sioux City spent the weekend with relatives here.

Emil Carlson, who is employed at Brink's shoe store, spent two weeks with his family in Sioux City.

Miss Marie Hibma was a Sunday guest in the D. Reinsma home.

Mrs. Nina De Bey entertained a few ladies at dinner Tuesday in honor of Miss Martha Chalmers.

Local members of the Eastern Star attended the school of instruction conducted by Miss Chalmers at Alton Tuesday.

Members of the family and a few friends heard Miss Della Beth De Bey "on the air" Sunday night when she broadcast over station WIND at Gary, Indiana.

Rev. H. Mullenburg of Chandler, Minn., was snowbound for a week in the S. Mullenburg home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Noordhoff and son, Merrill, of Hospers called on relatives here Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Mak, who has been spending a month with relatives in this vicinity, returned Monday to her home at Manchester, S. D.

Miss Wilmina Van Veldhuizen of Sioux Falls, and Angelo Van Hozzen and Gary Rens of Vermillion spent the weekend in their respective homes.

Miss Gertrude Berkes who was snowbound here for a week returned Monday morning to resume her work at the beauty shop at Sioux Center.

MAURICE

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Schat and Mr. and Mrs. John Slikkers of Orange City visited in the Renold Schat home Tuesday.

The Harry De Jager and John Heekstra sales are scheduled to be held Saturday. The John Hibma sale was postponed from last week to this Thursday. The De Jager family will move to the house in town vacated by the Hibmas who will leave for California soon. The John Heekstra family will make their home at Oubeyedan.

Miss Mae Haarsma contracted scarlet fever and became ill last week Tuesday. Consequently the Mrs. Henry Haarsma family will be unable to move to Orange City as soon as planned. Her children, Henry and Nellie, are staying with the Clarence Haarsma family during the quarantine.

Mrs. Anna De Jager's nephew will occupy the farm when she and her daughters, Eleanor and Gladys, move to the house in town formerly owned by Mrs. Tena De Jong who with her daughter Blanche will move into the house they purchased at Orange City.

Miss Alma Brink of Hawarden is assisting in the Elmer Van Roekel home during moving time. The Van Roekels will move to the De Jong farm vacated by Gerrit Wiehens who purchased and occupies the farm

Mrs. Elmer Miller assisted her father, G. J. Hollinga, in the barber shop Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Reekers and family were guests in the G. Van Strijland home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bushelman of Crofton, Neb., is visiting her father, Dick De Vries, who has been sick for some time and is not improving.

R. W. Dockens of Sioux City spent a few days in the Bert Labbers home. The residents at the Pioneer home enjoyed a birthday party Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Terpstra, the matron of the home, and Miss Spaan who observed their birthdays on March 3 and 4, respectively.

Mrs. H. M. Westra is assisting at the telephone office at Maurice. Her sister, Mrs. Ard, who is employed there is unable to work on account of illness.

Coach Van Zanten addressed the Lions club Monday. Rev. J. Heemstra, who was on the program, was unable to be present on account of the serious illness of his son, Frank.

A number of friends surprised Miss Ruth Dykstra with a miscellaneous show at her home on Monday evening. The Misses Martha De Beer and Hendrine Dykstra were hostesses.

Mr. La Vander Plaats and two children of Edgerton, Minn., were snow bound for a week in the home of Mrs. A. De Lint.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Strijland were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schuller Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and daughter, Daisy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffmeyer and daughter, Arlene, and Miss Fanny Harmelink were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Strijland.

Mrs. A. J. Pennings observed her 70th birthday Monday. Several friends came during the afternoon to celebrate her.

Mrs. Buregraf entertained several ladies in honor of Mrs. H. Kuyper on last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. G. Noteboom will honor her with a similar gathering on this Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw observed their 26th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 3.

The Gerrit Van de Waa family have moved into the rooms back of the Bunkers cleaners.

Herman Van Pelt of Morningside called on his mother, Mrs. D. Van Pelt, who is seriously ill.

BOYDEN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rens moved home from Vermillion, S. D. where they were spending the winter with their son Gerrit. The latter accompanied his parents here, got snowed in and it was several days before he could return to his college work.

Bobby Wargowsky has been confined to bed with illness for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Koolman, Marjan Verrips and Henry Stegeman arrived home from their California trip on Wednesday last. They got here during the tie-up of No. 18 so came from Sheldon by rail.

Miss Marlyne Mae Blumeyer is ill at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Groeters. Marlyne attends school in town.

Baby girls arrived on Friday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Groeters and Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Rooyen.

Miss Sylvia Kersten spent Sunday the home of her parents at Hospers. She is assisting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Brink, both of whom are quite ill.

Fred Starkweather Jr. is a patient at the Hull hospital with appendicitis.

Boyden basketball team attended the tournament at Orange City Saturday evening and met defeat at the hands of Alton—but by only one point!

Rev. Henry Ostermeier of the United Presbyterian church announced Sunday that he had received a call to another field which he felt disposed to accept. The congregation will act on his resignation March 15th.

The Young Women's Missionary society of the U. P. church met with Miss Dorothy De Valois on Monday evening. The women's society met with Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Ann De Valois, on Wednesday afternoon.

The Democrats of Sheridan township held a caucus for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, at the hotel Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid of the U. P. church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Eldora Heitritter.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held in the Herman Meester home Friday, with Mrs. Meester and Mrs. A. E. Miller as hostesses. Mrs. P. L. McCrum will be in charge of the program, the topic: "Another type of Art and school of artists."

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Schat and Mr. and Mrs. John Slikkers of Orange City visited in the Renold Schat home Tuesday.

The Harry De Jager and John Heekstra sales are scheduled to be held Saturday. The John Hibma sale was postponed from last week to this Thursday. The De Jager family will move to the house in town vacated by the Hibmas who will leave for California soon. The John Heekstra family will make their home at Oubeyedan.

Miss Mae Haarsma contracted scarlet fever and became ill last week Tuesday. Consequently the Mrs. Henry Haarsma family will be unable to move to Orange City as soon as planned. Her children, Henry and Nellie, are staying with the Clarence Haarsma family during the quarantine.

Mrs. Anna De Jager's nephew will occupy the farm when she and her daughters, Eleanor and Gladys, move to the house in town formerly owned by Mrs. Tena De Jong who with her daughter Blanche will move into the house they purchased at Orange City.

Miss Alma Brink of Hawarden is assisting in the Elmer Van Roekel home during moving time. The Van Roekels will move to the De Jong farm vacated by Gerrit Wiehens who purchased and occupies the farm

Mrs. Elmer Miller assisted her father, G. J. Hollinga, in the barber shop Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Reekers and family were guests in the G. Van Strijland home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bushelman of Crofton, Neb., is visiting her father, Dick De Vries, who has been sick for some time and is not improving.

R. W. Dockens of Sioux City spent a few days in the Bert Labbers home. The residents at the Pioneer home enjoyed a birthday party Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Terpstra, the matron of the home, and Miss Spaan who observed their birthdays on March 3 and 4, respectively.

Mrs. H. M. Westra is assisting at the telephone office at Maurice. Her sister, Mrs. Ard, who is employed there is unable to work on account of illness.

Coach Van Zanten addressed the Lions club Monday. Rev. J. Heemstra, who was on the program, was unable to be present on account of the serious illness of his son, Frank.

A number of friends surprised Miss Ruth Dykstra with a miscellaneous show at her home on Monday evening. The Misses Martha De Beer and Hendrine Dykstra were hostesses.

Mr. La Vander Plaats and two children of Edgerton, Minn., were snow bound for a week in the home of Mrs. A. De Lint.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Strijland were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schuller Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and daughter, Daisy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffmeyer and daughter, Arlene, and Miss Fanny Harmelink were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Strijland.

Mrs. A. J. Pennings observed her 70th birthday Monday. Several friends came during the afternoon to celebrate her.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw observed their 26th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 3.

The Gerrit Van de Waa family have moved into the rooms back of the Bunkers cleaners.

Herman Van Pelt of Morningside called on his mother, Mrs. D. Van Pelt, who is seriously ill.

BOYDEN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rens moved home from Vermillion, S. D. where they were spending the winter with their son Gerrit. The latter accompanied his parents here, got snowed in and it was several days before he could return to his college work.

Bobby Wargowsky has been confined to bed with illness for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Koolman, Marjan Verrips and Henry Stegeman arrived home from their California trip on Wednesday last. They got here during the tie-up of No. 18 so came from Sheldon by rail.

Miss Marlyne Mae Blumeyer is ill at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Groeters. Marlyne attends school in town.

Baby girls arrived on Friday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Groeters and Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Rooyen.

Miss Sylvia Kersten spent Sunday the home of her parents at Hospers. She is assisting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Brink, both of whom are quite ill.

Fred Starkweather Jr. is a patient at the Hull hospital with appendicitis.

Boyden basketball team attended the tournament at Orange City Saturday evening and met defeat at the hands of Alton—but by only one point!

Rev. Henry Ostermeier of the United Presbyterian church announced Sunday that he had received a call to another field which he felt disposed to accept. The congregation will act on his resignation March 15th.

The Young Women's Missionary society of the U. P. church met with Miss Dorothy De Valois on Monday evening. The women's society met with Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Ann De Valois, on Wednesday afternoon.

The Democrats of Sheridan township held a caucus for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, at the hotel Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid of the U. P. church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Eldora Heitritter.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held in the Herman Meester home Friday, with Mrs. Meester and Mrs. A. E. Miller as hostesses. Mrs. P. L. McCrum will be in charge of the program, the topic: "Another type of Art and school of artists."

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Schat and Mr. and Mrs. John Slikkers of Orange City visited in the Renold Schat home Tuesday.

The Harry De Jager and John Heekstra sales are scheduled to be held Saturday. The John Hibma sale was postponed from last week to this Thursday. The De Jager family will move to the house in town vacated by the Hibmas who will leave for California soon. The John Heekstra family will make their home at Oubeyedan.

Miss Mae Haarsma contracted scarlet fever and became ill last week Tuesday. Consequently the Mrs. Henry Haarsma family will be unable to move to Orange City as soon as planned. Her children, Henry and Nellie, are staying with the Clarence Haarsma family during the quarantine.

Mrs. Anna De Jager's nephew will occupy the farm when she and her daughters, Eleanor and Gladys, move to the house in town formerly owned by Mrs. Tena De Jong who with her daughter Blanche will move into the house they purchased at Orange City.

Miss Alma Brink of Hawarden is assisting in the Elmer Van Roekel home during moving time. The Van Roekels will move to the De Jong farm vacated by Gerrit Wiehens who purchased and occupies the farm

Mrs. Elmer Miller assisted her father, G. J. Hollinga, in the barber shop Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Reekers and family were guests in the G. Van Strijland home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bushelman of Crofton, Neb., is visiting her father, Dick De Vries, who has been sick for some time and is not improving.

R. W. Dockens of Sioux City spent a few days in the Bert Labbers home. The residents at the Pioneer home enjoyed a birthday party Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Terpstra, the matron of the home, and Miss Spaan who observed their birthdays on March 3 and 4, respectively.

Mrs. H. M. Westra is assisting at the telephone office at Maurice. Her sister, Mrs. Ard, who is employed there is unable to work on account of illness.

Coach Van Zanten addressed the Lions club Monday. Rev. J. Heemstra, who was on the program, was unable to be present on account of the serious illness of his son, Frank.

A number of friends surprised Miss Ruth Dykstra with a miscellaneous show at her home on Monday evening. The Misses Martha De Beer and Hendrine Dykstra were hostesses.

Mr. La Vander Plaats and two children of Edgerton, Minn., were snow bound for a week in the home of Mrs. A. De Lint.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Strijland were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schuller Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and daughter, Daisy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffmeyer and daughter, Arlene, and Miss Fanny Harmelink were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Strijland.

Mrs. A. J. Pennings observed her 70th birthday Monday. Several friends came during the afternoon to celebrate her.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw observed their 26th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 3.

The Gerrit Van de Waa family have moved into the rooms back of the Bunkers cleaners.

Herman Van Pelt of Morningside called on his mother, Mrs. D. Van Pelt, who is seriously ill.

BOYDEN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rens moved home from Vermillion, S. D. where they were spending the winter with their son Gerrit. The latter accompanied his parents here, got snowed in and it was several days before he could return to his college work.

Bobby Wargowsky has been confined to bed with illness for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Koolman, Marjan Verrips and Henry Stegeman arrived home from their California trip on Wednesday last. They got here during the tie-up of No. 18 so came from Sheldon by rail.

Miss Marlyne Mae Blumeyer is ill at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Groeters. Marlyne attends school in town.

Baby girls arrived on Friday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Groeters and Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Rooyen.

Miss Sylvia Kersten spent Sunday the home of her parents at Hospers. She is assisting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Brink, both of whom are quite ill.

Fred Starkweather Jr. is a patient at the Hull hospital with appendicitis.

Boyden basketball team attended the tournament at Orange City Saturday evening and met defeat at the hands of Alton—but by only one point!

Rev. Henry Ostermeier of the United Presbyterian church announced Sunday that he had received a call to another field which he felt disposed to accept. The congregation will act on his resignation March 15th.

The Young Women's Missionary society of the U. P. church met with Miss Dorothy De Valois on Monday evening. The women's society met with Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Ann De Valois, on Wednesday afternoon.

The Democrats of Sheridan township held a caucus for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, at the hotel Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid of the U. P. church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Eldora Heitritter.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held in the Herman Meester home Friday, with Mrs. Meester and Mrs. A. E. Miller as hostesses. Mrs. P. L. McCrum will be in charge of the program, the topic: "Another type of Art and school of artists."

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Schat and Mr. and Mrs. John Slikkers of Orange City visited in the Renold Schat home Tuesday.

The Harry De Jager and John Heekstra sales are scheduled to be held Saturday. The John Hibma sale was postponed from last week to this Thursday. The De Jager family will move to the house in town vacated by the Hibmas who will leave for California soon. The John Heekstra family will make their home at Oubeyedan.

Miss Mae Haarsma contracted scarlet fever and became ill last week Tuesday. Consequently the Mrs. Henry Haarsma family will be unable to move to Orange City as soon as planned. Her children, Henry and Nellie, are staying with the Clarence Haarsma family during the quarantine.

Mrs. Anna De Jager's nephew will occupy the farm when she and her daughters, Eleanor and Gladys, move to the house in town formerly owned by Mrs. Tena De Jong who with her daughter Blanche will move into the house they purchased at Orange City.

Miss Alma Brink of Hawarden is assisting in the Elmer Van Roekel home during moving time. The Van Roekels will move to the De Jong farm vacated by Gerrit Wiehens who purchased and occupies the farm

Mrs. Elmer Miller assisted her father, G. J. Hollinga, in the barber shop Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie Reekers and family were guests in the G. Van Strijland home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bushelman of Crofton, Neb., is visiting her father, Dick De Vries, who has been sick for some time and is not improving.

R. W. Dockens of Sioux City spent a few days in the Bert Labbers home. The residents at the Pioneer home enjoyed a birthday party Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Terpstra, the matron of the home, and Miss Spaan who observed their birthdays on March 3 and 4, respectively.

Mrs. H. M. Westra is assisting at the telephone office at Maurice. Her sister, Mrs. Ard, who is employed there is unable to work on account of illness.

Coach Van Zanten addressed the Lions club Monday. Rev. J. Heemstra, who was on the program, was unable to be present on account of the serious illness of his son, Frank.

A number of friends surprised Miss Ruth Dykstra with a miscellaneous show at her home on Monday evening. The Misses Martha De Beer and Hendrine Dykstra were hostesses.

Mr. La Vander Plaats and two children of Edgerton, Minn., were snow bound for a week in the home of Mrs. A. De Lint.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van Strijland were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schuller Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw and daughter, Daisy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffmeyer and daughter, Arlene, and Miss Fanny Harmelink were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Strijland.

Mrs. A. J. Pennings observed her 70th birthday Monday. Several friends came during the afternoon to celebrate her.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouw observed their 26th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 3.

The Gerrit Van de Waa family have moved into the rooms back of the Bunkers cleaners.

Herman Van Pelt of Morningside called on his mother, Mrs. D. Van Pelt, who is seriously ill.

BOYDEN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rens moved home from Vermillion, S. D. where they were spending the winter with their son Gerrit. The latter accompanied his parents here, got snowed in and it was several days before he could return to his college work.

Bobby Wargowsky has been confined to bed with illness for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Koolman, Marjan Verrips and Henry Stegeman arrived home from their California trip on Wednesday last. They got here during the tie-up of No. 18 so came from Sheldon by rail.

Miss Marlyne Mae Blumeyer is ill at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Groeters. Marlyne attends school in town.

Baby girls arrived on Friday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Groeters and Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Rooyen.

Miss Sylvia Kersten spent Sunday the home of her parents at Hospers. She is assisting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Brink, both of whom are quite ill.

Fred Starkweather Jr. is a patient at the Hull hospital with appendicitis.

Boyden basketball team attended the tournament at Orange City Saturday evening and met defeat at the hands of Alton—but by only one point!

Rev. Henry Ostermeier of the United Presbyterian church announced Sunday that he had received a call to another field which he felt disposed to accept. The congregation will act on his resignation March 15th.

The Young Women's