TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Distict Court next Tuesday. Thanksgiving next Thursday. Drop in and look at John van de Steeg's new store-room. Jno. H. Ray, of Lincoln township, was a welcome caller Wednesday.

Chas. Lewis' new bank building at Calliope is up and enclosed. Another wedding is on the tapis for to-morrow. So sayeth rumor.

Wm Reichhoff expects to occupy his new office sometime this week. Henry Lenderink has three tax sale notices in this issue. Read them.

Deputy Sheriff Hollenbeck was busy last week, serving summons, subpoenas, etc. Quite a number of sleepy boys were seen on the streets Thursday, the day after the dance.

It was thought last Friday that our Sheriff had succeeded in obtaining a clue to the missing jail-birds, but the rumor was without foundation. Mr. H. Spinden was recently surprised by receiving a visit from his mother.

Geo. W. Espy, agent for the American Express company at this place, was the recipient of a pair of scales and a six-shooter from the company last week. G. Popma has moved his barber shop from next door to W. de Haan & Sons' store, to the new building just south of Juriaan Ellerbroek's furniture store.

A new photograph gallery has been erected opposite the HERALD office. Persons in want of pictures of any kind should call soon, as the gallery will not remain long. The Index outfit is very envious of Frank Campbell and Capt Wyatt, because they have more brains for business in their respective little fingers than can be found in the whole Index office.

Frank LeCocq, Jr., of Douglas county, Dakota, returned to Orange City last Thursday for a short visit with friends and relatives. He reports the new colony flourishing. He returned Tuesday. Mr. Jacob de Vries has laid out an addition to Orange City, and is ready to sell you finely located lots for residences.

Mr. Klay takes the lead in de Vries' addition by building a handsome two-story house. The attack made by the Index upon the auditor and his assistant last week, was a mean, low-lived, cowardly trick, and no paper, run by gentlemen, would degrade itself to so low a depth for mere personal spite.

Quite a number of our citizens, on meeting us on the street, took much pains to ask us, "How's the Free Voter?" We will inform all anxious enquirers that the Free Voter was all right, the last heard from it. The Orange City barber last week announced his intention of subscribing for the Police News, when a gentleman present tried to persuade him from it, adding, "if you must take a right dirty paper for your customers to read, subscribe for the Index."

Bravo Bear, the Sioux, was hung decently and in order at twenty-one minutes past 12 o'clock at Yanikon on last Wednesday afternoon. He made good his name in his death. He met his fate bravely. His scaffold speech was laconic and cheerily spoken. Maj. P. R. Bailey, of Sheldon, will be in Orange City, from Tuesday until Saturday of next week, for the purpose of selling at public auction a large and well-assorted stock of men's and boys' clothing. The auction will open Tuesday evening and continue all week. The goods will be sold to the highest bidder for cash. Don't fail to call early if you wish to secure a bargain.

"Charley" Jongeward has purchased John Synhorst's interest in the Orange City meat market, and is now running it in full blast, and our citizens can depend upon getting fresh beef and pork every day. Work on the new shop, one door south of Peirce & Lewis' land office, is being pushed rapidly. When this is completed we will have a first-class meat market, and one centrally located for the citizens.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given by the older scholars of the Orange City school, in the school house, on Thanksgiving evening, November 30, commencing at 7 o'clock. An admission fee of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children will be charged, for the purpose of purchasing an Encyclopedia for the school library now being established. Don't forget the date nor fail to be present.

All persons insured in the Iowa Mutual Aid Association will no doubt be pleased to learn that ye junior editor has received his benefit for the two weeks he was incapacitated for work not long since, amounting to $12. This proves conclusively to our mind that this company mean business and are honest in their dealings and intentions. We would advise all thinking of having their lives insured to try this company.

Carpenter Lenderink completed the addition to the rear of John van de Steeg's store last Friday. It adds greatly to the appearance as well as convenience of the store, increasing the size of room to double its former capacity. This additional space will be filled to overflowing with new goods, of every description. It is the largest and best store room in town, and John will put in a first-class stock of dry goods and clothing. We bespeak for John an immense trade.

The Index whines bitterly because it was not furnished with the proceedings of the board as soon as it adjourned, and thus "the people" were not advised of the doings of the board. Heretofore when the Index has been furnished a plain copy of the proceedings; it has failed to inform the people correctly, on account of the numerous mistakes made by the printer, for which the auditor has to bear the blame. This is why the Index was not furnished the proceedings for last week's issue.

Not Yet. The little one-horse concern down street, edited by a ferocious Southern fire-eater, imagines that we have "backed down."

Backed down, eh! Back down in the vindication of our rights! Back down for men who acted like sneak-thieves in their attempt to sully the fair history of a race which has ever held an honored position on the roll of European powers! Back down for men who betray as much ignorance of the facts of the case as they are unscrupulous in their attacks upon individuals! Back down for an insignificant, unprincipled paper that hires a misanthropic scoundrel, and rave at an offending public! Back down, in abject submission, to men whose hostility to our race finds but a parallel in the history of Haman! Back down to allow the "imperial Index" to tyrannize over a people for which it can find no epithets but those which are expressive of degradation and contempt!

BACK DOWN! NEVER! The fact is, the HERALD does not recognize a grim sheet which belches forth volumes of pestiferous bombast and is replete with nauseous egotism. We do not regard it honorable to parley with men who can only heap vituperation and vilification upon the heads of those who differ with them upon political, social, or religious principles. Our sympathy does not extend to men who rail and carry on as if bedlam was let loose. We abhor their principles and shun their society more than the contaminating influence of pestilential diseases. Nor would we waste a breath upon men who are secretly plotting to make unholy alliances with other nationalities, were it not apparent that they aim to strike a blow at our very liberty. They mean to crush us because we are foreigners. They forget that our fathers have paid dearly for the misfortune of being "strangers in a strange land"—not to speak of the contumely and insults that were heaped upon them. For years our fathers suffered the rule and misrule of men who were as incompetent as they were dishonest. Yet in the hour when the perpetuity of our national existence was jeopardized, the "damned" volunteered with such alacrity and served with such patriotic zeal as caused blushes on the brazen faces of their cowardly drivers. Have they no privileges in "common with the people of the Northwest?" Has the Index instituted a reign of terror, and must we submit to its inquisitions without a murmur? Must we back down when called upon to defend the inalienable rights of American born citizens or the franchises of those whose citizenship has been sealed by blood and fire? No! Heap libelous reproach upon reproach! Dredge the race-line deep and wide! Storm our citadel with all the forces which your barbaric eloquence can draw into an alliance! We shall confront you upon these issues and fight our Thermopylae. Instead of suffering ourselves to be cowed into silence by your threats, we shall rather fan the smoldering embers of an insulted public into a blaze that will consume the last vestige of our contemptible reveries. But we shall not degrade ourselves with sparring with social outcasts and renegades.

Sioux Center Items. Even van Beek is rapidly recovering. A little snow this morning, and yet no railroad. Mr. — is teaching in the Wisconsin district. From what we have seen of the gentleman, we must congratulate the district upon having secured such an able instructor.

Sioux Center has two churches and no saloon. Tally one on that score. Our evening school commenced last Tuesday evening with one pupil, a charming young lady, by the way; and it is claimed, by those who know, that the session was very interesting.

Last week Mr. Henry van Beek received one of the famous Beet-hoven organs. It is a first-class instrument in every respect, and all that Mr. Beatty, the manufacturer, claims for it. The copy of the Free Voter, published in last week's HERALD created quite a sensation among our people. Many had heretofore looked upon Jeremiah J. as a friend and treated him accordingly. Now, however, all is changed and the old cracked Bell will find that the harder he rattles the sooner he will break.

In one respect the election in this township gave us a pleasant surprise. It will be remembered that last June not a single vote was cast here in favor of the amendment, and the opposition fondly hoped to poll almost a solid vote for their candidate for congress. But not so. The people have had time to reflect and to see their error. Although every effort was made by the rotaries of "Free Ram and no Sunday" to obtain voters for Mr. Allison, he received only about one-third of the votes cast.

We feel proud of Mr. Struble's majority, and we are even more glad of it for our own sake than for his. It shows that the good work is progressing and gaining friends; that we are marching on to victory. The rum power may appear strong, but it is only the energy of despair. Like a wounded brute it appears only more terrible in its death throes. The fatal arrow has already pierced it, but the work is not yet done. Let us be untiring, then, in our efforts, and let the powers of Heaven and earth unite to tear the demon from its throne; and never rest until they have hurled it, with all its advocates into eternal damnation. MOMUS.

MARRIED. PRICE-FINCH.—At Orange City, on Tuesday, November 14, 1882, by A. van der Meide, J. P., Mr. Wilson T.

Price, formerly of McGregor, Iowa, later from Fargo, Dakota, to Miss Kittie H. Finch, of Sheridan town ship. After the wedding ceremony the happy pair returned, in company with J. N. Finch and Miss Mary Wilson, to the residence of Mr. Emmet Finch, where the bridal supper awaited them.

After supper a general good time was had for a time, when an oyster supper was given by the groom. A few presents were given, a social chat enjoyed, and, as the clock tolled the midnight hour, the friends of the bride and groom departed to their respective homes, but not without feeling that another of Sioux county's estimable young ladies had gone from our midst.

VAN PELT—MIERAS.—At Alton on Wednesday, November 15, 1882, by Rev. J. W. Warnshuis, Mr. Albertus van Pelt and Miss Susan Mieras, both of Sioux county. The groom in this ceremony is one of Holland township's best and most prosperous young farmers, and owns a fine farm west of town, which is all under cultivation, and is well-to-do in this world's goods. His bride is a charming young miss, standing well up in society, and will make him a true and loving wife. The bridal party took supper at the home of the bride's parents, and afterward adjourned to Mr. van Pelt's new house on his farm, where preparations had been completed for the party, and all lovers of Terpsichore tripped the light fantastic until the "wee sma' hours." The happy pair have the best wishes of the entire community for their future happiness, and all wish them long life and prosperity. Also that they may have "van pellets" on their journey through life.

A Confession. Two years ago last summer my husband, W. van der Kamp, upon my complaint was arrested, and upon my testimony was convicted, and placed under bonds. I hereby publicly confess that the complaint then made, and the testimony given, were not true. I take all the blame of that trouble upon myself. As the matter was then published in the HERALD, for that reason I make this confession through the same paper. TIETJE VAN DER KAMP.
