

Public Sale of Real Estate

Notice is hereby given that at two o'clock P. M. on Saturday the 7th day of September, 1907, at the front door of the court house at Orange City Iowa, we the undersigned will offer for sale to the highest and best bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit:

The northeast quarter of section 36-95-45 and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 31-95-44 and also lots 2 and 3 in block number 27 Orange City Iowa--all of said real property belonging to the estate of Leendert Van Pelt Senior, recently deceased, and all said property being situated in Sioux County Iowa.

This property is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances and is as choice and desirable as any in the county. A small payment must be made on the date of the sale by the purchaser as earnest money but the consideration is not to be paid until the sale and deed has been approved by the District Court of Sioux County Iowa. For particulars call on or address the undersigned.

DIRK VAN PELT, ALBERTUS VAN PELT, Executors, Orange City Iowa
G. T. HATLEY, Attorney for Estate

Orange City

Albert Popma returned to Boone. Dan Gluth of Peterson was here. Miss Nell Rhymsburger has returned from Pella. Mrs. E. Vanden Braak returned from Devils Lake. Mrs. Madison has returned to her home in Nebraska. G. Beyers returned from a visit to Litchville North Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lohr are enjoying an outing at Okoboji. Mrs. Smeenk is back from her visit to Brewster South Dakota. Mr. and L. Knook left yesterday for a visit to Sully and Pella. Mrs. J. Te Veltrup went to Tracy Minnesota—her future home. Dr. Bruyn has taken possession of his new and commodious home. Dr. Paxton from Salt Lake City is expected here today on a visit. Two new ovens will be built in the Eerkes-Vander Maaten bakery. I. Herwynen is mail carrier while E. Smeenk is taking his vacation. Mrs. A. Hoeven and children have gone on a visit to Brandon Wisconsin. John Visser—a nephew of P. Jeltma arrived here from the Netherlands. The Farmers picnic will be held on the county farm September twentieth. Attorney Klay has taken possession of his new office and is comfortably situated.

Don't forget the Quarter Centennial Celebration at Maurice next Thursday. Misses Jennie Rostman and Nellie Sterrenburg have returned from Minnesota. Rev. Heemstra leaves today for Kansas and Nebraska in the interest of the Academy. Messrs Hatley and Van Pelt have been to Brookings county South Dakota on business. Mr. and Mrs. T. Broers have left for Colorado in hopes that the wife's health may be restored.

The children of the American church Sunday school will have a picnic on next Thursday.

The Misses Jennie and Mamie Ypma have gone to Minneapolis to buy their fall millinery stock.

Charles Oelrich came home accompanied by 800 head of sheep which he will prepare for the market.

Claude Fitzgerald who used to live here with his parents has become the proprietor of the Alvord Register.

Clerk Reinger and Treasurer McKee have gone to Clinton to attend a convention of county officers.

L. Snyders went to Perkins to estimate a stock of goods sold by Dykstra to De Reus & Vander Bok.

R. Van Zyl threshed thirty bushels of oats and thirty bushels barley and fourteen bushels winter wheat per acre.

Misses Hattie Hoppers and Catherine De Kraay took the train at Alton Wednesday for Sheldon and Hull.

Charles L. Dyk sold three of his famous maul spreaders last week and they are giving excellent satisfaction.

Our electric light plant is progressing remarkably well and we expect to have the light again by the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lubbers have gone to Zeeland Michigan where the sixtieth anniversary of that settlement will be held.

Mr. Muste formerly an instructor at the Academy will preach for the people of the American Reformed church this Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Menning of Muscatine—who is taking a rest with his people here—after having undergone a serious operation is steadily improving.

Mrs. Van Veldhuizen came to town where her horse frightened at the sight of an automobile and ran away. She suffered no injury but the buggy was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Noordhoff have returned from an eight weeks outing to Fulton Illinois, Milwaukee and Oshkosh Wisconsin, Grand Rapids and Zeeland Michigan and Chicago.

Rev. Cornelius Spaan has left for Oklahoma, Virginia, Knoxville Iowa and Lake Winona Indiana. His brother Rev. William Spaan has also left for his field of labor in California.

The young ladies mission band of the First Reformed church have contributed sixtythree dollars and seventy cents thereby furnishing a room in the Dormitory at McKee Kentucky.

Hubert Kuyper returned from Montana and the National Park. He had a great deal to narrate. Yesterday he left for Lismore Minnesota to look after the Riekhoff farms.

Mrs. H. Bogaard and daughter of Pella are here on a visit. Also Mr. and Mrs. Van Houweling, Mrs. Van de Rovert and Miss U. Van Tee were here but have left for Douglas county South Dakota.

It is said that Mrs. P. Van Horssen living with her grandchildren—the Notebooms—a few miles from town is our oldest inhabitant. She has

Wrinkles

Come surely to weak women, who have to frown and endure the torture due to the diseases peculiar to their sex. Not only wrinkles, but hollow, lack-lustre eyes, sallow complexion, gray hair, all of which tell of premature old age. The prevention of this lies in your own hands. Cure the disease that causes your suffering, and strengthen your weakened constitution, with of which Mrs. Mary Irvin, of Pampin City, Va., writes: "I think it is the best on earth for all suffering women. My doctor did me no good. I suffered untold misery from head to foot, but the first dose of Cardui gave me relief, and when I had taken one bottle, I felt like a new woman." The above seems to prove that Cardui will relieve your pain, strengthen your constitution and renew your youth. Try it.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMAN'S RELIEF

At all Druggists, $1.00 reached the age of ninetythree a few days ago. In 1847 she came with the emigration that peopled Pella.

C. E. Tanton—formerly a teacher in our public school will arrive here today. From here he will go to Boone and there will enter the matrimonial state. His present home is Salt Lake City.

Three ministers are here at present by the name of Douwstra: the old gentleman who resides at Middleburg, his brother from Gano and his son from Lansing Illinois—the last two are visiting here.

The Christian Reformed people will hold their mission festival in Kooiman's grove on Thursday August twentyfourth and the Reformed churches will convene in Rouwenhorst's grove September fifth.

Mr. George H. Stapelkamp and a cousin and his wife—all from Greenleafon Minnesota were here a few days since to visit the Rev. Mr. Stapelkamp. The condition of the latter gentleman is about the same as last week.

The cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Kittie Henrietta Hoppers of Sheldon to Frank A. Mieras of Maurice and of Miss Ada Mieras of Maurice to Rev. Hamilton of Sioux City and of Miss Minnie Mieras to Prof. Jackson of Maurice.

Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Lobbes—formerly of this place and now living at Chicago—have lost their little son aged four years in a sad way. He was kicked in the abdomen by a boy eight years old. After an examination at the hospital it was found that his intestines were wounded and during the night between Saturday and Sunday an operation was performed. The next day the child died.

Mr. Luymes aged eightythree is ever busy collecting stamps which he forwards to a gentleman in the Netherlands. The latter has been confined to his bed for more than a quarter of a century. He spends his time in preparing the stamps that philanthropic people send him for the market. One half of the proceeds is intended for the support of his family and the other half he forwards to the cause of foreign missions. The package that Mr. Luymes forwarded last Saturday contained 45000 stamps.

Mr. H. K. Bekman received a letter from the Rev. P. Lepeltak formerly of Alton who now resides at Paonia Colorado for his health. The writer was improving nicely but about four weeks ago he caught cold and in consequence he suffered from a distressing cough and severe pain in the region of the liver. At present he is feeling much better. He also writes that fruit there is quite scarce. Many are out hunting and fishing. The writer and even some of the rich people live in tents and find this very beneficial. At a distance of fifteen miles from Paonia Mr. Sipma and a few others are located and endeavor to make a prosperous country there by irrigation.

Tuesday evening the Commercial Club of Orange City held its regular monthly meeting. There was a good representation of the membership and all were more or less enthusiastic. It was decided that each and every one present endeavor to improve the appearance of his yard and alley and clean and clear away the weeds on the streets and also to aid the council in transforming the square into a park. Then too to inquire what may be done in the line of additional enterprises for the town. For each of these worthy objects special committees were appointed. The club will also interest itself in attractions for the coming fair and in making the institution a financial success as well as an entertainment for the public. After all the expenses had been paid there was about twenty eight dollars left from the last Fourth of July celebration fund. This amount was transferred to the treasury of the club.

Bozden

Mrs. Eckert and Miss Alice Cooper were Sheldon visitors on Monday. C. A. Morris and wife were business visitors in Sheldon Monday. Misses Mary Morris and Bessie Brewster went to Sheldon Tuesday. Rev. Howie returned Saturday from a weeks outing and rest at the lakes.

Grandpa Stutzman left Monday for Rosebud South Dakota to visit his son.

There were two painters here last week that painted the Reliance elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil De Vries and children are visiting relatives here this week.

Don't forget the Quarter Centennial Celebration at Maurice next Thursday. Laurence Eckert was at Cherokee on business Tuesday returning Wednesday.

Billy Walker and wife went to Windham Minnesota Monday with a view to buying a new home.

Dean Brothers started their threshers last week and threshed for John Rouwenhorst on Monday.

Laurence Eckert has quit work in the roundhouse at Sanborn and expects to work at something else.

R. G. Lubbers left Wednesday for Aberdeen South Dakota on business his daughter going west as far as Canton.

There was a happy reunion at the home of Mr. De Vries and wife Monday it being their fortieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Fred Stehnenburg accompanied Steve De Vries to Fielding Iowa on Wednesday to visit her sister Mrs. De Vries.

Miss Mae Baysinger of Rock Valley was the guest of her cousin Mrs. Eckert and family from Saturday until Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Wagner returned Tuesday from Presho South Dakota where she has been visiting her husband who is working there at present.

Ed Stutzman wife and son Lloyd left Tuesday for Havana South Dakota to visit his brother and oversee his farm interests there.

John Pryde drove to Sheldon Wednesday to take his mother to the train as she returned home after an extended visit here with her brother John Morris.

Mrs. Williams had a sale Saturday and sold off most of her household goods as she is going to live at the home of her parents and does not need it. It sold very low and cheap.

There are some certain persons in Boyden that are so curious that when a stranger gets off the train they are tagged to their destination to see who they are and where they are going.

Ed Lanning has again sold his restaurant property here to parties in South Dakota. It seems a sure thing this time as a young man and his sister are here now to commence their duties in the work.

The new janitor for the Holland church brought his family and household goods here Friday but could not get possession of the house recently purchased of Mr. De Velder until the fore part of this week as Dr. Bradshaw could not move before. He has the Williams house.

Granville

Jake List was a Sioux City visitor Saturday last.

Granville was defeated in a game of ball with Carnes Sunday.

Miss Hannah Burke of LeMars is visiting Mrs. George Clayton.

Quite a number from here took in the circus at Paullina Tuesday.

Miss Klaasen of Clinton is visiting at the home of Otto Callenius.

Miss Clara Greff visited in Alton Tuesday the guest of Miss Ida Sauer.

Don't forget the Quarter Centennial Celebration at Maurice next Thursday.

Misses Mary Hall and Carrie Spies of LeMars are visiting Charlie Hall and family this week.

Mrs. Lena Schweback and son Johnny visited the fore part of the week with relatives at Hawarden.

When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."
Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's SASSAPARILLA.
PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

News From Hull

Peter Bell who has been quite sick for a week or more is on the road to recovery.

Don't forget the Quarter Centennial Celebration at Maurice next Thursday.

Miss Amy Elliott of Inwood visited at the Sheldon home in this city part of the week.

Miss Lucile Lass came up from LeMars last Saturday for a weeks visit with friends in Hull.

J. W. Beach of Litchfield Minnesota spent Sunday with his son Dr. Clayton Beach of this city.

Miss Mary and Maurice Knewell came down from Sioux Falls and visited in Hull over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cornforth left the first of the week for a visit at Rock Rapids and Bigelow and Little Rock.

The Misses Emma Sheldon, Amy Elliott and Maud Hawkins went to Sioux City Wednesday. They will visit at Hinton and LeMars before returning home.

J. Hopkins of Sioux City who is now holding down a claim in western South Dakota spent a few days in Hull this week and the latter part of last looking after the Bolks estate.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hall left Tuesday for a visit at Cedar Falls and Cedar Rapids. Some people think that if they find a place to their liking they may remove from Hull.

Ed Wier has accepted a position as grain buyer for A. H. Betts. He takes the place formerly held by John Cornforth. Ed has resigned as night watch and John Wilson has taken his place.

Herman Folrich had the misfortune to get a piece of steel in his eye Monday while working at his threshing machine. While it is quite painful it is not thought that it will injure the eye sight.

Jake Hoesen of Sioux Center drove into Hull last Saturday evening with a new Jackson automobile purchased through Bob Miller of the firm who employ him. They made the trip from Council Bluffs Saturday—arriving here about dark.

Word has been received here that R. F. Fobes has his household goods loaded in a car and they are on the road to Hull. Mr. Fobes and daughter Miss Hattie and brother Will follow the car in a short time and again make Hull their home. They can find many places worse than Hull to live in. They will be welcome.

To Tennis Brunsting belongs the credit of marketing the first grain in the Hull market this season. He threshed Tuesday and marketed some barley receiving fortysix cents per bushel for it. Both barley and oats are going to be light in weight. Good progress has been made with stacking here and most of the threshing machines are running.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Woods of Parkersburg visited Mr. and Mrs. George Hundling the latter part of last week and the first of this. They went from here to George Tuesday to visit a sister of Mr. Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Hundling went with them—returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Woods is a sister of Mrs. Hundling. Mr. Woods is Superintendent of Schools of Butler county.

Maurice News

A good four year old work mare at a reasonable price. Inquire of Duven Brothers.

Don't forget the Quarter Centennial Celebration at Maurice next Thursday.

Banker Vos got back Friday from the lakes where he reports having a splendid time.

Gerrit De Jong will leave September first to enter business college at Mankato Minnesota.

Dr. Oggel and wife who have been touring the Pacific coast for three weeks are expected back today.

Fred Dimer is out with a hay baling crew. He has sent twelve carloads to Chicago since July twentyfive.

John Crowley got back last week Thursday from Fulton Illinois where he took the remains of his father for burial.

Grandia's merry-go-round is on the ground ready for business when the celebration begins on August twentysecond.

Mrs. Cheever of Jewell Junction was here the past week to visit friends. Her husband was station agent in Maurice a few years ago.

An account of the Mieras double wedding will be found on another page—also program of the town's Silver Jubilee Celebration on August twentysecond.

Duven Brothers report the implement business good. They bought out Henry Kool last spring it will be remembered. They sold fourteen binders this year.

T. Dykema residing north of town was kicked Wednesday by a horse. His right arm was broken close to the shoulder. Dr. De Bay of Orange City reduced the fracture.

Gerrit Van Steenberg has resigned his position at the Atlas Elevator here and will clerk in Soboop's general store at Sioux Center. Henry Van Dyk of that town will fill his place.

The second footrace which was to have taken place Thursday between Ed Schmidt of Alton and Ralph Mieras of Maurice was called off owing to the illness of the latter.

Fred Walz of Hartington Nebraska is here on business. He owns the farm two miles southeast of here where Will Page lives. He wants to put buildings on it but can't get carpenters.

Billy Peterson who has been with Ahrens Brothers meat market for six months left this week for North Dakota to run a threshing outfit for his father. Adam Jacobsma takes his place in the shop.

Mrs. Hannah Crowley whose husband just died left Tuesday for Morrison Illinois to live with her daughter Mrs. William Kustes. She was accompanied by her son Dr. Crowley of Chicago and Mrs. Kustes.

John Brouwer and John Auchtatter were in Maurice this week. They are two prominent farmers from Hoppers vicinity and were enroute to the Wakefield place to buy pedigreed Poland China boars. They each purchased one.

Matt Duven who finished school at Hope college in Holland Michigan last June has been preaching over in Illinois at Manitowish Spring Lake. He has a call from Grandview South Dakota now and is expected through here soon to visit his folks.

John Van Olst the Maurice blacksmith is making things hum these days. Says he has more work than he can do. John is a good workman. It will doubtless be news to many Maurice people that John was the first child born at Orange City.

Low Fie and daughter Miss Vina came to Maurice from Alton Thursday for the latter to sign up her contract to teach in the public school and also lock up a place to board. She will room at Peter Van Penrsem's and take her meals at the Star restaurant.

Frank Mieras and Miss Kittie Hoppers of Sheldon are to be married the thirtyfirst. They are fitting up rooms in the Moran building. Frank is the popular assistant cashier at the bank and Miss Hoppers has taught school here some years. Her sister Miss Effie came Thursday to help fit up the house.

One of the neatest and most up-to-date stores in Sioux county is the hardware and furniture store of Messrs Mieras and De Jong of Maurice. They have a splendid line of furniture and have the shelf goods in hardware line all nicely cared for in wall cabinets. It is a pleasure to step into such a store.

Thursday the boys got out and fixed up the ball diamond for the Celebration games on the twentysecond. They mowed the weeds off the field and skinned the diamond. It is near the public school. Just to try it the town played the country a game of ball. The teams were Col. Bertrams and Col. Drugers.

Job Ypma and son Jake of Orange City have the contract for enlarging the Dutch Reformed church. They will put on an addition thirtyfour by forty and change the location of the tower. Their gang consists of Ben Aalders and Fred Jansma and John Holland and Pete Hopman. They just finished a house and barns on one of Pete Van Oosterhout's farms near Rock Valley.

Litchville News

Miss Clara Hemmer was the guest of Marion friends the fore part of the week.

Misses Helen and Angela Hemmer were passengers to Valley City Tuesday where they will attend summer school.

Guert Vogelhaar is building a new house on his Greenland township farm. John Abens has the contract for the carpenter work.

N. Cleveringa of Orange City Iowa is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lensen south of town. He will remain in this vicinity until after harvest.

C. H. Ellits and Willie Ellits returned from their California trip on Wednesday. Cord took up a desert claim of 320 acres while there and will return there after harvest to improve it.

H. Broeks and D. Schreurs from Waupun Wisconsin arrived here Tuesday and are guests of relatives in Greenland township. They expect to remain here and do stone-mason and plastering work if conditions prove satisfactory.

Rickets.
Simply the visible sign that baby's tiny bones are not forming rapidly enough.
Lack of nourishment is the cause.
Scott's Emulsion nourishes baby's entire system. Stimulates and makes bone. Exactly what baby needs.
ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00

STORIES OF SUCCESS
By Successful Men and Women
No young man or woman desiring an education that will insure their future success, can afford to decide upon the school to attend, before reading the history of the high salaried men and women in this book.
FREE FOR THE ASKING
The Toland Schools have more graduates holding high salaried positions, than all other schools in the northwest combined.
Address TOLAND'S BUSINESS UNIVERSITY
SIOUX FALLS, SOUTH DAKOTA
DO IT NOW