A special from Huron to the Journal gives the following account of the marriage of Warley Black: "One of the most brilliant social events of the season was the marriage Wednesday evening of J. H. J. Black, of Sioux Falls, and Miss Flora C. O'Neal, of this city. The ceremony occurred at the residence of the bride's parents. Rev. H. H. Dresser officiating, and was witnessed by about fifty guests. A magnificent wedding supper was served. The couple were the recipients of a large collection of beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Black will go to Sioux Falls on Thursday, where they will make their home. They have the good wishes of a host of friends in this city for a long life of happiness and prosperity."

night from Cass county, with a young man named James Kempton, who had formerly lived at Calliope. It seems that while living at Calliope he had tampered with the affections of Miss Sadie Reese, who was particularly desirous that he should become her husband. With the penetentiary staring him in the face, he went over Monday morning, armed with the necessary credentials, and was immediately charged with the responsibilities of a married man. If there were only some way to make such men live with their wives and support their children, it would be a good thing. This fellow remarked while here that he would marry the girl but would leave her. Nine-tenths of such cases result only in legitimizing the child; the disgrace remains and the husband goes his way and leaves them. A Le Mars special to the State Register says: "The Democrats celebrated their victory here Saturday night. They got in a car load of beer and reas- Pant last Saturday. The Journal of Sunday gives the following account of it: "The people of Moville are in a dilemma. The east end Woodbury county villiage is out a postmaster. Postmaster Brunett was on Friday noon given twenty-four hours' notice to quit the town, and B. E. Boyde, who has been appointed postmaster, has not yet received his commission. Brunett, an appointer of the of the Cleveland administration, is charged by his neighbors with the meanest act that has been anearthed if that locality, and the good citizens made a demand on him for his absence in the fature. A pretty 16-year old girl is the innocent cause of Brunett's downfall an unpopularity with the Moville people. She is the daughter of respectable, popular parents residing in an adjoining county. Some months ago she found employment at Moville and Burnett soon after accomplished her ruin. Sunday School Workers. The fall meetings of the Sioux coun ty S. S. Association have been held; that for the north part of the county in Hull, and the one for th south part in Center Chapel.

The Hull meeting was almost a failre, many reasons combining to make it so.

The Center Chapel meeting was very successful and interesting, both in numbers and the completeness with which the program was carried out. The day sessions were attended by from 50 to 60, and in the evening the house was well filled.

The teaching of "Bible Truth" was emphasized as the great work entrusted to the hands of Christians; the necessity of its being done carefully and thoroughly, and the necessity of those who would teach others being acquainted, experimentally, themselves with the great truths of the Bible.

The convention was much indebted for its profitable and instructive character, to the presence and work of such men as Warnshuis, Greene, Suckew, Daffer, Bailey, Mullenburg, Van Olst, Montgomery, Brown. Cobb and others, and many women, also, who took part Sheriff Betten came in Saturday in the discussions and entertainment of the convention.

The ladies of Center Chapel cannot be excelled in hospitality. All who came were entertained at sumptuosly spread tables in the wing of the courch. price. It was the unanimous vote of the visitors as they started homeward, that if was good to meet with, and be entertained by so generous a people.
